

Food Chains

A food chain shows where a plant or animal gets its energy.

Where do you get your energy from?

How many different food chains can you make using these pictures? Who is eating who?

A food chain always starts with a PRODUCER – a plant that makes its energy from the sun.

A living thing that eats other plants and animals is called a CONSUMER.

